

Thinking Storage and Networking?

Think Hewlett Packard from Ingram Micro.

When it comes to networking and storage, nobody can satisfy your clients needs better than HP and Ingram Micro.

For over 30 years HP has lead the way in networking and storage, with a range of products that deliver industry leading prices, performance and reliability.

At Ingram Micro, we take selling HP networking and storage product seriously by providing expert advice and configuration services. In addition, we stock all warehouses with the entire HP range, and most importantly, give you access to some of Australia's most competitive prices.

For questions about pricing, product information, or configuration, talk to our HP Storage & Networking Product Specialists at Ingram Micro or email specialist@ingrammicro.com.au.
