Upgrades

As of March 6, 2015, Autodesk will no longer accept upgrades. If a customer has a serial number that needs to be upgraded, they will have to purchase a new license.

Maintenance/Support

Maintenance is optional for new seats. Maintenance includes 12 months of web support, upgrade assurance, downgrade rights, online trainings, and a subscription center access for end users to manage their licenses. There is an additional charge for phone support.

Media

Hard copy media is available for a fee for any new license that is purchased.

Authorization Requirements

Authorization is required to purchase Autodesk products including those products considered to be Horizontal, Vertical Access, AEC, MFG, and M&E products. Products open to everyone include retail products such as AutoCAD LT. To become an authorized reseller, please log onto

Product Delivery

Autodesk has switched over to ELD skus(Electronic License Delivery). Please allow 24 to 48 business hours for orders to be processed and completed both by Ingram Micro/Autodesk. The customer will receive a welcome email once Autodesk has processed and invoiced the order. Autodesk will still ship orders for unserialized media and Autocad LT. Please allow 3-5 business days for delivery from Autodesk's warehouse located in North Carolina and 2 to 3 days for product shipping from Ingram Micro. Shipping instructions can be applied upon your request for 1 or 2 day delivery. 12:00PM EST is the cut off for expedited shipping requests. The order must clear and release from Autodesk's side to avoid delay.

Renewals

Please provide the contract number for renewals and any applicable serial numbers when submitting to distribution. If a contract expires, customers have 30 days to renew without late fees. After the 30th day of expiration resellers are required to add a late fee per seat. Customers have 364 days to renew with late fees, after which they are no longer able to renew with a late fee. Instead the customer is required to crossgrade or upgrade to the desired product type.

Pricing Programs

Corporate pricing is the standard pricing option we are able to quote for any end user. We are able to quote Government to some resellers that have been designated as a government reseller by Autodesk. The Academic program is now a free download from Autodesk website, www.autodesk.com.

Autodesk does have a Deal Registration program that allows authorized resellers access to ACE SKUs. If you are an authorized reseller please contact partnersupport@autodesk.com for further details.

Important Notes

Autodesk does not process returns during their quarter ends under the following months: January, April, July, October. Returns always resume the following month at which time you can resubmit your request.
